Jetstar Japan to launch Narita - Kochi new flight service from 19 December 2018!
- Kochi will be a new destination for Narita Airport -

Jetstar Japan will launch Narita - Kochi new flight service from Narita Airport from 19 December 2018.

Jetstar Japan operates from its hub at Narita Airport to 4 overseas destinations (Hong Kong, Taipei, Manila, and Shanghai), and 11 domestic destinations (Sapporo, Osaka (Kansai Airport), Takamatsu, Matsuyama, Fukuoka, Nagasaki, Kumamoto, Oita, Miyazaki, Kagoshima and Naha). The addition of this new destination will give Jetstar Japan more domestic destinations from Narita than any other airline.

Kochi is famous as the birthplace of Ryoma Sakamoto and has many scenic locations including a statue of Sakamoto at Katsurahama as well as Muroto Cape and Shimanto River. Located in the southern part of Shikoku, lying between the Shikoku Mountains to the north and the Pacific in the south, it is blessed with an abundance of natural beauty. There are a vast number of activities to enjoy, including standup paddle boarding, rafting, and whale watching in the beautiful seas, mountains and rivers.

There is plenty to do and see for young and old alike with the Yosakoi festival held every summer as well as the Sunday market which stretches back over 300 years to the Edo period. Visitors can also try such delicacies as seared bonito, Shimizu mackerel sashimi and deep-fried moray eel for which Kochi, situated on Tosa Bay, is famous.

With the new Kochi service, Jetstar Japan now operates at 22 airports in 21 cities in Japan! With such a growing network, Narita Airport offers greater travel convenience.
