Hainan Airlines Launches New Beijing Capital Service on 31 October 2019

Hainan Airlines (IATA code: HU) has announced a new service between Narita and Beijing Capital commencing on 31 October 2019. Hainan is a full service carrier (FSC) based in China's Beijing and is the first Chinese Airline to receive a 5-star rating from Skytrax (*1). The new route will be the airline's second from Narita after its Xi'an service.

As well as being the political heart of the country, Beijing is also famous for its tourism resources, including World Heritage listed locations, and is therefore a very popular destination for business and tourism.

Narita Airport will continue to expand its network to offer our customers a more convenient selection of destinations. Hainan Airline's new Beijing service add greater convenience to an already convenient network.

(*1) Skytrax is an aviation services research company founded in 1989 and based in the United Kingdom. The company evaluates airports and airlines around the world.
