AirJapan to Launch Narita - Bangkok Service On 9 February 2024

ANA Group's new international services brand, AirJapan (IATA code: NQ), will commence its first scheduled passenger service between Narita and Bangkok (Suvarnabhumi) on 9 February 2024. Under its "Fly Thoughtful" brand concept, AirJapan will provide a high quality, comfortable cabin environment at affordable prices.

Bangkok is one of the largest cities in Southeast Asia and appeals to tourists from all over the world with a variety of attractions ranging from temple tours to shopping and gourmet food.

This is the first time in three years that a Japanese airline based at Narita Airport has started a new service. We recommend AirJapan to you as a new travel option.
