Jetstar Japan to Launch Narita - Miyazaki New Service Commencing 21 December

- Miyazaki Becomes New Destination for Narita -

Jetstar Japan (IATA Code: GK) will launch a new service between Narita and Miyazaki on 21 December 2017, which will be a new destination for Narita. Jetstar Japan currently operates services to 4 overseas destinations (Hong Kong, Taipei, Manila and Shanghai) and 9 domestic destinations (New Chitose, Kansai, Takamatsu, Matsuyama, Fukuoka, Oita, Kumamoto, Kagoshima and Naha) from Narita Airport. The new service will be the carrier's 10th domestic destination, serving the largest domestic network at Narita Airport.

Miyazaki enjoys a warm climate throughout the year and has a distinctive tropical atmosphere. The region offers lots to see and do, including drives along the coastline with beautiful views of the Pacific Ocean, the town of Takachiho, the home of myths and legends, and Aoshima Island, a small island which is designated in its entirety as a "Natural Monument of Japan". With chicken-nanban (fried chicken with vinegar and tartar sauce), mango and a wide array of other local delicacies, Miyazaki is a Japanese holiday resort that promises visitors a special experience.

The Miyazaki service by Jetstar Japan brings the total number of Narita's domestic destinations to 19 airports in 18 cities. We invite you to take advantage of the Narita's expanded domestic route network.
