

NAA Entrant Wins ACI Asia-Pacific Young Executive of the Year Award (YEA) 2013

Tokyo 10 May: A staff member of Narita International Airport Corporation has won this year's ACI Asia-Pacific * Young Executive of the Year Award for his paper submitted. The award was established by ACI Asia-Pacific in 2009 for young talents who represent the future of the aviation industry. The award presentation ceremony was held at the ACI Asia-Pacific Regional Assembly, Conference & Exhibition convened in Phuket, Thailand on Tuesday 23 April, 2013.

NAA has been participating this program since the commencement of the program in 2009 and this is the second time that an NAA staff member has won the award after winning it last year. Narita Airport has an ongoing commitment to fostering leaders of the future as part of its aim to become the airport of choice.

Winner:

Mr. Ushio Kokubo,
Supervisor, Administration,
Passenger Terminal Management Department

Theme of Paper:

Analysis of Airport and Airline Relationship

* ACI Asia -Pacific

One of the five regions of the Airports Council International (ACI), based in Hong Kong and represents over 500 airports in 43 countries in Asia-Pacific and the Middle-East.

As the only global trade association of the world's airports, ACI represents airports' interests with governments and international organizations, develops standards, policies and recommended practices for airports, and provides information and training opportunities to raise standards around the world