

~ A FLIGHTPORT? A DANCEPORT? A FUNPORT? ~ ONE DAY SUMMER PROJECT

Tokyo, 28 July 2015: Following last year's tremendous success, they have done it again. Narita Airport will put on a summer face with fun holiday events produced by the team WAKAGI ("young sprouts") made up of young employees in their second year at Narita International Airport Corporation (NAA) for the customers visiting Narita Airport. Visitors will be welcomed by typical summer events including the Bon festival dance held for the first time at Narita Airport and a "Fly Your Own Plane" event where participants can draw their own airplanes and fly them on a giant screen.

Held on Sunday, 16 August

All events are free! !

DANCEPORT NARITA!

May be canceled in poor weather conditions.

Terminal 1, Landside 5F, Observation Deck, 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Bon festival dance

Bon festival dancing overlooking airplanes from the observation deck at Narita Airport, Japan's gateway to the world.

The public and visitors from abroad are welcome to join in.
