

Japanese Hospitality "OMOTENASHI" -August Program of Events-

Tokyo, 29 July 2015: In the month of August, we are hosting more "first-time-ever at Narita Airport" events to welcome travelers from overseas so that they can learn more about Japan and so that we may encourage them to return to visit Japan in the future. Overseas visitors are invited to enjoy a range of summer events which include models walking about dressed in cool and comfortable Yukata, the traditional summer attire in Japan; an exhibition of Edo Cut Glass where you can experience the elegance of summer; and workshops where participants may try their hand at making fans.

Events in the Airside Area After Passport Control

Summer Stroll in Yukata

 NEW

The popular greeting event will be held again this month in Terminals 1 and 2. Under the theme of Summer in Japan, models will appear in traditional Yukata. Visitors to the airport may have photos taken with them, and they will also receive fans to take home as souvenirs. Enjoy a cool moment at Narita Airport.
