TABIMORI - Travel Amulet-

Duty-free orders, latest news, all in one app!

New version available on 30 Oct. 2015 (Fri.)

2nd
Major Upgrade!

Tokyo, 26 October 2015: Narita Airport's hospitality application for overseas visitors to Japan, "TABIMORI", is getting a major upgrade with a wider range of contents which will boost convenience and ease of use.

The app was released in July last year to offer visitors to Japan a complete solution when they find themselves in trouble or they want to check or look something up. With 150,000 downloads in the past year, it has proved extremely popular. This is a major upgrade with 5 new functions that will make travel more enjoyable. The main features of this upgrade are as shown below.

Main Additional Features

Duty-Free Ordering

- The app is now linked to the duty-free pre-order site of Narita Airport's largest duty-free shop, Fa-So-La, where users can order duty-free items in advance. With its multilingual functions, visitors to Japan can search for souvenirs to buy at the airport with greater ease.

Japan News

- Catch up on the latest news anytime, anywhere, with a link to the English edition of Japan News (provided by Yomiuri Shimbun).

Improved Functions in Life & Culture Section

- Searching for accommodation is now much easier thanks to a link with the world's largest travel site, TripAdvisor, a feature requested by many customers.

Improved Functions in Emergency Manual Section

- The app will be linked to MSI Emergency Navigation (provided by Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Co., Ltd.) which offers easy-to-follow multilingual guidance in the event of a disaster.
